Liquor Foes' Counsel Declares Disclaimer Was Not Filed Legally.

The Anti-Saloon League of New Jersey has forwarded to Thomas F. McCrun, hold-over Republican Attorney General of the State, a brief giving its grounds for urging that measures be taken to annul the election of Edward I. Edwards as Governor and of twelve Essex County Assemblymen opposed, like Mr Edwards, to bone-dry enforcement of the National Prohibition laws.

G. Rowland Munroe, counsel for the Anti-Saloon League, states that Mr. Edwards made no legal disavewal of the "lavish expenditures" in advertising on his behalf by anti-prohibition agencies and various county and State committees, in excess of the $25,000 permitted by law. Mr. Murroe gives many legal decisions to show that even if Mr. Edwards, as stated on his behalf, did send a disavowal to the Scoretary of State Nov. 7, it was not legally "filed" until it was put on record at Trenton and was open to inspection by the public, as Mr. Munroe says it was not when he last inquired. It is also urged that even were the "filing" local the disclaimer was made too
